

Myratech.net PLC
26 October 2006

Myratech.Net Plc has noted the recent increase in its share price. The Company is currently in negotiations regarding a potential acquisition which if successfully concluded would constitute a reverse takeover under the AIM Rules. Following consultation with the London Stock Exchange, trading in the Company's shares will now be suspended with immediate effect pending completion of the negotiations.